

EMORY
REGIONAL PERINATAL CENTER

49 Jesse Hill Jr Drive, SE
Faculty Office Building 280-B
Atlanta, GA 30303

BEHAVIORAL SUPPORT PROJECT
DEVELOPMENTAL PROGRESS CLINIC

Division of Neonatology
Department of Pediatrics
Emory University School of Medicine

Supporting Social and Emotional Development in Children with a History of Prematurity

Second Annual Workshop

March 23, 2018

7:30 AM – 4:30 PM

Steiner Auditorium

Grady Health System Main Campus

68 Armstrong Street, SE

Atlanta, Georgia 30303

Objectives:

- Explain why premature babies and neonates with prolonged NICU stay are at high risk for behavioral and emotional problems.
- Recognize critical aspects of maternal mental health and wellbeing and its impact on children's social and emotional development
- Identify and apply strategies that support social and emotional development in the NICU and during the first years of life after discharge.
- Incorporate in your practice strategies to improve working relationships with parents and caregivers.

Goal: To bring together health care providers and educators from different backgrounds to discuss behavioral and emotional problems in children born prematurely and identify ways in which to help their families.

Accreditation:

Nursing: Emory Regional Perinatal Center is an approved provider of continuing nursing education by the Tennessee Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

This activity has been designated for a maximum of 7.3 contact hours. Nurses licensed in other states are advised to check with that state regarding reciprocity.

LMSW/LCSW: This program has been submitted to the Georgia Society for Clinical Social Work for 7.3 Core Hours.

Project SCEIs: This program has been submitted for 7.3 CEUs (Area 2 | Children with Disabilities and Their Families).

Criteria for Successful Completion: Submit a completed evaluation form and Attendance Verification Form identifying the sessions attended. Partial credit may be requested.

Disclosures: The planners and speakers have declared no conflict of interest.

Commercial Support: There is no commercial source of funding to report for this program.

THERE IS NO CHARGE TO ATTEND BUT REGISTRATION IS REQUESTED

Workshop agenda and registration form are attached.

For additional information, contact Shira Malka Asherman lasherm@emory.edu or phone 404-778-1501